

WalkTop Care & Maintenance

Ratchet Mechanism Lubrication

Routine lubrication is required to ensure the proper functioning of the WalkTop. To do this spray a very small amount of silicone spray lubricant (available at most hardware stores) in the lower portion of the ratchet mechanism. (See photo attached). Fully raise and lower table top several times to ensure proper coating of lubricant. This should be applied every 3 to 6 months or as required.

